DEATH OF LOUIS WEBER.

Louis Weber, a well-known musician, died last night at his home, 725 Seventh street southeast, Washington, from a second paralytic stroke. Mr. Weber was born in Baltimore in 1834 and came to Washington at the age of 4 years. He was well-known in this city and in by-gone years Weber's orchestra furnished music for many of the dances given here.

MAN DROWNED.

Officers of the steamer Capital City, which arrived from the lower river this morning, reperted that a man, whose name they were unable to learn, was drowned at Chaptico last night. The man walked overboard and ropes were thrown to him from the steamer, but he did not avail himself of them.

RELIANCE FIRE COMPANY.

A meeting of the Reliance Steam Fire Engine Company was held last night at headache, invest one cent in a postal which considerable business of interest to the organization was transacted. Arrangements were made for an oyster roast at the meeting on the third Tuesday in January when officers will be ple of Chamberlain's Stomach and elcoted.

It is good fighting for it shoots straight at the mark.

The plan is admirable because it is educational-because it will help to teach both old and young that it is the duty of one and all to help lift the burdens of tuberculosis which weighs upon the whole community. Those are the Canerou street, started an alarm of practical material merits of the Red Cross seals. But there is another side. Those little "Merry Christmas" squares are gifts that not only will do good, but will do the giver good. Remember "every stamp is a bullet in the fight against tuberculosis."

WORK COMPLETED.

The work of remodeling the castle hall of Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights pleted, and the committee who had the work in charge deserves great praise. The hall has been beautifully papered and painted throughout. All property rooms have been made to open in the lodge rooms proper, making it more convenient for degree work. A reception or banquet hall has been added, also an up-to-date bath and toilet room, which go to make the hall one of the prettiest and most cozy lodge rooms in this city. The lodge room proper is decorated in green and gilt paper, with the same effect of trimming as the lodge room. These effects, under the light of the new chandeliers, makes a beautiful contrast, and are pleasing to the eye. Arrangements are being made for a home coming convention of Oriental Lodge, January 10, 1911.
